Cody W. Johnson placed as CEO of National Signs, LLC by Sudduth Search

Houston, TX: Today, Sudduth Search, LLC, a boutique retained executive search firm headquartered in Houston, Texas, announces the placement of Cody W. Johnson as the new Chief Executive Officer of National Signs, LLC. Mr. Johnson is an experienced, customer-focused executive poised to lead the company into its fourth decade of growth.

“We were very fortunate to find such a high-quality candidate and appreciate Sudduth Search bringing him to our attention. He brings to the company a demonstrated track record of outstanding business leadership and relentless customer-focus that will be crucial to National Signs’ success moving forward,” says Louis Girard, Chairman of the Board.

Mr. Johnson, having assumed the CEO role earlier in December said, "In these weeks since I joined National Signs, I have been inspired by the quality of our craftsmanship and the quality of our people. As the company nears its 30th year, I’m inspired to work with this team and the Board of Directors to develop and grow the company. A big thanks to the Sudduth Team for putting me together with a great opportunity.”

About National Signs, LLC:
